THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION 202 SKYLAND BLVD. TUSCALOOSA, AL 35405

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-28-95

October 8, 1984

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

****

NEW ARTS CALENDAR PLANNED

Effective immediately, Shelton will publish for the community a calendar of its arts and humanities events. Debbie Grimes, director of library services for the college, will be in charge of the calendar. If you would like any activities listed in the calendar or if you have any names to be included on the mailing list, contact Ms. Grimes or Lucy Kubiszyn.

****

HYDE MINI CONCERT PLANNED

Dr. Frederic Hyde, professor emeritus of the department of music, the University of Alabama, will present a short concert on the harpsichord on Monday, October 8, at 12:30 p.m. in the music room of Shelton State Community College. The concert is free and all students, faculty, and friends are invited to attend.

****

LOST....A handmade "pieced" quilt in the auditorium after Tuesday aerobics class (12:30 - 1:30 p.m.) Sentimental value. Reward Offered. Call 349-2180 or bring by lost/found box in Dean Lee's office.

****

DON'T FORGET PETER PAN

The Tuscaloosa Community Players and the Punch and Judy Players will present Peter Pan scheduled to run October 10-14 at the Bama Theatre. In this broadway music based on the timeless play by James M. Barrie, adults and young people are one in Neverland, where its summer, winter, spring and fall, all at the same time. Season tickets are $20 for the season's four productions and student season tickets are $15. Individual tickets are $7. For information, contact the Bama Theatre. The Tuscaloosa Community Players and the Punch and Judy Players are sponsored in cooperation with Shelton State Community College.

****

FINE ARTS/HUMANITIES COMMUNITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE FORMED

A Fine Arts/Humanities Community Advisory Committee has been formed for the college, and the first meeting was held last week. The purpose of the committee is to promote the college in the area of the arts and to offer suggestions for new programs and feedback on existing ones.

Members from the community serving on the committee are: Gail Skidmore; Lee Burchfield; Donna Guthrie; Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Hale; Dr. Alan Bales; Jan Holman; R. L. Guffin; Dr. Bruce Durdick; Maria Barnes; Willeta Zoellner; Ann Wright; Steve Saxon; Mrs. H. T. Carstarphen; Tina Deloach; Mrs. Albert Baernstein; Debbie Wilson; Frances McFarland Johnson; Nanci Stewart; Frank Engle.

Serving on the committee from the college are Dr. Joyce Jolly, Dr. Bethany Engle; Linda Mason, Debbie Grimes, Syble Coats, Paul Looney, Carole Johnson, Sharon Deck, Louis Skipper, Lucy Kubiszyn.

****

TECHNICAL TALK

Hugh Kynard, dean of instruction, and Wayne Boetler, dean of students, will be at Tuscaloosa County High School on October 10 recruiting high school seniors for Shelton's Technical Division...Melvin Corder, instructor of computerized numerical control, has been assigned the opportunity to help in the retraining of workers with FEEMCO as they enter into an expansion period...The Technical Division will participate in Career Day of West Alabama on November 7 at Memorial Coliseum.

LPN NEWS

The Rev. Ralph Milligan, pastor of Covenant Presbyterian Church will be the graduation exercise speaker for the two classes of licensed practical nursing students of Shelton State Community College. Ms. Inman's and Mrs. Beam's classes will receive diplomas on Tuesday, November 20, at 7 p.m. at the Junior College Division.

Mrs. Fredd's LPN class is planning to attend a workshop on DRG's in Guntersville. The workshop will focus on new changes in Medicare and Medicaid.

Mrs. Bibby's and Mrs. Powell's class toured Bryce Hospital recently, and the June 3 -- 11 p.m. class just completed their rotation at the Veterans Administration Hospital. This class, under the leadership of Ms. Day and Mrs. Robinson will begin work at Druid City Hospital.

****

JOLLY KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Jim Jolly, instructor of English for Shelton State Community College, gave the annual memorial lecture for the Northeast Alabama Geneological Society recently.

Jolly's lecture, entitled "Family Names on the Land: The Geographic Linguistics of Surnames in Alabama," discussed the frequency and patterns of using family names in place names and the linguistic changes these place names have undergone.

****

SHELTON TO RECRUIT AT TCHS

Shelton State's Junior College Division will be at Tuscaloosa County High School on Wednesday, October 8, from 8-8:45 a.m. to talk to the senior students. Dr. Randall Jarrell, director of Shelton's counseling center, along with counselors Evelyn Mettee and Diane Layton will be there telling the advantages of Shelton State.

Entertainment will be provided by the Ensemble from the Shelton Singers. Those students performing are Sonni Brown, Steve Seale, Leah Hamner, Steve Stewart, Brian Jones, Karen Hayes, Randy Vaughn, Ronnie Miles, Teresa Hill, Jenny Ambrose, and Sara Lumpkin.

****

STAR SERIES TO OPEN WITH SHAKESPEAR FESTIVAL

The Alabama Shakespeare Festival will present "Arms and the Man" as the first offering of the year by the Star Series. The witty comedy is set in turn-of-the century Bulgaria and is a mocking take-off on the Victorian notion of "military heroism." The tale follows a practical minded young soldier in an obscure Balkan war and his romantic encounter with the daughter of an enemy officer. The performance will be October 30 at 8 p.m. at the Bama Theatre. The Star Series is presented by The Arts Council of Tuscaloosa, Alabama Union Programs, The University of Alabama, and Shelton State Community College.

****

WOMEN TO SPEAK OUT ON CENTRAL AMERICA

Tuesday October 9 8:00 p.m. Ferguson Forum U of A

Myrna Cunningham
A Miskito Indian doctor from Nicaragua, abducted by the contras in 1981, who has filed suit against the U.S. government for violation of neutrality

Juanita Wade
Chairperson of the Boston Rainbow Coalition

Phyllis Jones
National representative of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom

A national tour sponsored by the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, hosted here by People for Peace and the UA Women Studies Program.